

NEVADA CONSUMER HEALTH DATA PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

This section of the Consumer Health Data Privacy Notice (“Notice”) supplements our Privacy Notice. It applies to Consumer Health Data that Nevro (“Nevro”, “we”, “our”) collects about Nevada state residents (“Nevada Consumers”) who are subject to Nevada law, NRS Chapter 603A, pertaining to consumer health data (“Nevada Consumer Health Data Act”).

“Consumer Health Data” as used in this Policy means personal information that is linked or reasonably linkable to a Nevada Consumer that Nevro uses to identify that individual’s past, present, or future health status.

This Policy does not apply to information we may collect about you that is exempt from the Nevada Consumer Health Data Act which includes, without limitation, the following:

- Information that is “protected health information” or “PHI” under HIPAA, which includes health information
- Personal information collected in connection with our recruitment and pre-screening of clinical trial participants and in the operation of clinical trials and related research efforts, including the provision of expanded access to drugs that are the subject of clinical trials
- Personal information used only for public health activities and purposes
- Personal information that federal or Nevada law expressly authorizes use to collect or share, including when we function as a manufacturer under FDA regulations
- Information that has been deidentified in accordance with HIPAA deidentification requirements
- Publicly available information
- Information collected about Nevada Consumers when acting in their capacity as employees, independent contractors, or job applicants

When we refer to “Consumer Health Data” in this Policy, it does not include any of the categories of personal information listed above.
